British Rubber & Polyurethane Products Association

Membership of the BRPPA

The British Rubber and Polyurethane Products Association Limited (BRPPA) was launched on the 1st January 2006 to represent the interests of the rubber and polyurethane Industry from manufacturers to suppliers of raw materials, services and machinery. As a collective group of working professionals, BRPPA works on a non-profit basis, entirely in the interest of its members and the industry as a whole.

Members of the Association can enjoy being part of a professionally diverse network that includes access to a wealth of business-enhancing resources, industry-level promotion, opportunity to contribute to new standards and regulations which directly affect the company's business, government representation to discuss matters of common interest, knowledge sharing and best practice, and access to dedicated health and safety expertise.
